

I support the FISTS position to retain morse for HF operation since it is narrow band, can utilize very simple equipment, is readable by both man and computer, and can be "copied" when voice will fail.